MORE REBEL PIRACY. Another Steamer off the Coast-Five Ves. sels Burned by Her-Capture of a New York Pilot Boat - Description of the Rebel

TELEMENT DIESEN

NEW YORK, August 12.—A rebel pirate is reported to have been sixty miles southeast of Sandy Hook yesterday, and to have captured the pilot-beat James Funk. [BECOND DISPATCH.]

FIRE ISLAND, August 12 - While one of the sailing boats attached to the Surf Hotel was craising outside his morning, it discovered a yawl-boat making for shore. Upon coming alongside, sixteen persons were found on board, who belonged to the pilot boat James Funk, of New York.

The brig Estelle, the tug Sarah Boyce, the brig Richard, the bark Bay State, and the schooner Atlantic, were captured and burned by the Confederate steamer Tallahassee, commanded by John Taylor Wood, off the coast yesterday afternoon.

The pilot who brought up an Italian bark this afternoon reports that on Thursday, at nine o'clock in the morning, about six miles southeast of Sandy Hook, he saw a steamer showing the American flag. She came close under the bark's stern, but did not hail. She then sighted the pilot-boat James Funk, and, hoisted the rebel flag, captured the boat and put a pirate crew on board, and steamed off toward Montank Point, the pilot-boat following at the same time.

The pilot also saw a schooner three miles to windward. All her sails were cut loose, in a sinking condition, the pirate having evidently O. F., will take place
At BECKERT'S GARDEN, (near the Navy Yard,) scuttled her.

The pirate craft is a small "neutral" English-built vessel, schooner-rigged, painted white, with red bottom, and carries a pivotgun for and ait, and four broadside guns, and is very slow. The pilot-boat is, perhaps, able to out sail her.

A passenger by the Evening Star reports she was chased tour hours vesterday by the pirate, who fired three shots at her, but she outsailed the enemy. This statement was not included in the purser's report to the press.

MONDAY, August 15, 1854. The committee pledge themselves that no pains will be spared to make it a day of enjoyment to every one on the occasion. Two ladies will dance several fancy pieces in full costume. The Prosperi Excelsion Cotillon Bandhas been engaged. The boat will leave 7th street wharf at 8 o'clock a. m., Blagden's wharf, Navy Yard half-past 8 s. m. By order of Committee. Tickets $1, admitting a gentleman and lady, au 11-3t* PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. Visit to Chambersburg - The Burnt District Inspected.

CHAMBERSBURG, Aug. 11 .- The Senators and Representatives, accompanied by the President of the Cumberland Valley Railroad and sev-eral other persons, left Harrisburg at 8 o'clock this morning, and arrived here at 10% in a special train, to view the ruins. Upon arriving here, the visitors were taken corted through the burned districts. The scene can never be properly described. Four squares in either direction, private houses and stores have been thrown into one black ruin. The order of the invaders had been to spare churches, and none of these were destroyed,

R. L. S. sends the following to the Tribune bureau here, under date of of August 11: General Sheridan's command broke camp at Halltown yesterday, and marched to Berryville, on the Winchester pike, where it arrived yesterday afternoon without much opposition. Imboden's cavalry skirmished with our advance from Charlestown, but were easily and steadily driven.

This morning at daylight we resumed the march, and expect to meet the enemy at Ope-quan, five miles this side of Winchester, where we will either have a battle or they will retreat

To all whom it may concern, seeting:

Notice is hereby given, that on the 21 day of August, 1864, the schooner L. B. Cowperthwaite, tacle and apparel, furniture, &c., were seized for violation of the Revenue Laws by the United States Collector of Customs at Georgetown, D. C., and brought the same into this District for adjudication; and the same are libelled and prosecuted in this court in the name of the United States, for condemnation; and have been arrested by the marshal for the reasons in the libel stated; and that said cause will stand for trial at the City Hall, in the city of Washington, on the first Monday of September next, when and where all persons are warned to appear to show cause why condemnation should not be decreed, and to intervene for their interests.

R. J. MEIGS, Clerk. Guerrilla Operations in Kentucky and Elsewhere. ST. LOUIS, August 12.-Ladina, on the Cumberland river, 12 miles above Smithland, was attacked by 200 rebel cavalry on Sunday morning. They were repulsed, with a loss of 6 killed and 20 wounded.

A thousand guerrillas are reported to be in Union county, Ky.; also, a large number in the western part of the State, near the Tennessee line. Gen. Paine has gone down there to clear them out.

Gen. Paine has levied a tax of $25 on each bale of cotton, and 25 per cent. ad valorem on each hogshead of sugar, belonging to disloyal men, for the benefit of families of robbed and murdered Union men. It is expected that this tax will yield three nundred thousand dollars in six months.

Railroad Accident at Perryville, Md. BALTIMORE, August 12, 10.10 p. m.—A despatch from Havre-de-Grace says nine freight cars, owing to the neglect of a brakes man failing to put on the brakes, ran overboard off the steamer Maryland, to-day, at Perryville. One soldier was drowned. There was no detention to the passenger trains. INCENDIARYISM IN PRINCE GEORGES .- The store house of Richard Ryon, at "Oroom," in Nottingham district, was destroyed by fire on Friday night last. It is said to have been the work of an incendiary.

The Primary school house in the same neighborhood was also consumed by fire on Satur-day night following. As the school house had been closed for the summer vacation for some time, it is fair to presume this was also the work of an incendiary. It is to be hoped the civil authorities will have these matters investigated, and the guilty brought to justice .-Prince Georgian, Aug. 12.

THE "GREAT SOCIAL EVIL" IN CHI.

THE EVENING STAR.

CAGO. Cyprians Ordered to Leave the City within korty-eight Hours-Many Prefer Posesaleg and Drowning Themselves - Great Exedes of Abandoned Women, &c., &c. The Chicago papers for some time pust have alluded to the increase of the egreat social evil" in that city. The Board of Police, at a recent session, passed the following stringent

Ordered. That the Superintendent of Police to directed to cause a natice to be left at alf-buildings which are supposed to be occupied on patronized by disorderly, vagrant or other persons of illegal practices, that from and after forty-eight hours from the date of leaving said notice all legal means, will be resorted to for the purpose of promptly entorcing the or-against such persons.

The Chicago Post of Monday contains the following startling narrative of the effects produced:

"The notices were served on Thursday by leaving copies at a large number of houses oc-capied by disreputable females. We do not hear that any notices were served upon the blacklegs or any other disorderly persons of the sex masculine. Indeed, the suddenly virtuous resolutions of the Police Commissioners appear to be wholly directed, in the present case, against women. Possibly they may suppose that if they can succeed in vanquishing the women their male confreres will disappear, and save the trouble and danger of a campaign against an enemy composed of veterans who have smelt gunpowder.

"The forty-eight hours grace mentioned in the notices expired yesterday. The terrible effects produced by the order, whether anticipated or not, have burst upon the community with all their melancholy reality. "The first fruits of the order were the violent deaths, by their own hands, of two abandoned women, who, terrified by the threatened vengeance of the authorities—the nature and extent of which they were utterly ignorant, but which in their minds, excited and confounded by the mysterious skirmishing of the police, had become arrayed with all the terrors of the rack or slow fire-had chosen voluntary death to the unknown agonies they believed to be in store for them. The name of one of them was Annie Wallace, a young woman of only eighteen years, and the daughter of respectable parents residing in Bringeport. About four months ago, concealing her destination from her friends, she took up her abode in a house of ill fame, kept by Mrs. Anna Bell, at 290 Clark street, and there entered upon a life of shame. With her it was as short as it was inglorious. Scarcely yet recovered from the first wild and intoxicating excitement of a wanton's lite, she found herself without friends whom she dared to approach, subjected to the overwhelming storm which had burst upon her Atraid to face an uncertain fate, on Friday evening she drank of a poisoned cup and died by her own hand.

Another victim to the rein of terror was a Mrs Repny, whose maiden name was Magie Glynn. She closed a life of many vicissitudes on Friday night, from the effects of laudanum admin stered by her own hand. The Coroner held inquests yesterday upon the bodies of the two unfortunate women, and the jury returned verdicts in both cases of death by suicide. There were reports current upon the streets last night of yet other cases of self-destruction by these panic-stricken temales. According to one of these, six women took a back and went a considerable distance on the North Side, where they left the conveyance and proceeded to the lake shore and deliberately threw themselves into the water and were drowned. It is impossible as yet to obtain the real facts in the case. There are other rumors abroad of an equally startling nature, but time alone can determine upon what foundation they rest. Of an intense and widely spread panic there can

"While some of the prostitutes have thus taken the fearful responsibility of ending their own miserable existence, others, in large numbers, are flying from the city in all directions. The police authorities state that the numbers known to have fled are as follows :- For Oincinnati. 30; for St. Louis, 60, and for Pittsburg, 28. Besides these, there is reason to believe that large numbers have left for other parts, some going by private conveyance.

"No demonstration was made last night, as expected, by the police, further than placing a strong patrol force upon Wells and Clark streets. If the terror already created does not rapidly abate it will be difficult for the present to find one of this class of persons of waom to make an example. The order of the police commissioners is accomplishing its work most rapidly. Now that the great hammer is about to fall, let us hope that some of the offenders of the male persuasion will feel its weight. When will the gamblers' turn come !"

The proprietress of a Peach orchard in Jersey advertised in a Philadelphia paper for 12 boys to pick her peaches, and appointed a locality in Philadelphia for a meeting to perfect arrangements. At the appointed hour, not twelve but over one hundred urchins appeared, all of their lips smacking with the prospect of a glorious feast of the delicious fruit they expected to pick. Then came the "tug of war." The boys assaulted her in front and flank. "Take me," ma'am said one. "I know how to pick peaches," cried another. "Don't have him: he can't do nothin'," yelled a hundred young aspirants, shoving, crowding, pushing, and using every available means, fair or foul, to get the ear of the panic-stricken female. The good woman, almost distracted, called for the "P'leece! P'leece!" The "P'leece" came, and, clearing a vacant space around her, gave her time to select a dozen youngsters from the crowd, when she attempted to leave, but the boys, cheated out of their expected prey, headed her off. Foiled in her attempt to get off from Walnut street, she bolted into Washington Square with about one hundred boys at her heels, including the favored and elated "dozen" who now basked in the sunshine of prospective peach orchards. The main body of the crowd, foiled in their attempt to enter along with her, made a flank and rear movement, pouring into the Square by the ga'es on Sixth street, Seventh street, and Locust street, again assailed her until, at last, the panting, perspiring and terrifled peach woman broke and fled, just as a fresh force of police came up to her rescue. The scene was one of infinite fun to the passers-by, but almost death to the object of the boys' attentions and affections.

A MISCONSTRUCTION .- A gallant efficer in one of the Iowa regiments, who never quailed before Confederate bullets, fell an easy victim to a pair of bright eyes, whose owner wore a beautiful apron bearing the emblem of our country's flag, and who was waiting on the lowa boys at a festival lately given on their return home. The colonel, wishing to make the acquaintance of the lady, remarked, "That is a pretty apron you wear, Miss." "Yes," said the maiden, "this is my flag." "I have fought many a hard battle under that flag," rejoined the colonel. "Not this flag sir," in-dignantly exclaimed the beauty as she swept away, leaving the gallant son of Mars perfectly dumbfounded.
